

Covid-19 Testing Privacy Statement 2021

Equality Impact Assessment: Askham Bryan College recognises the importance of the Equality Act 2010 and its duties under the Act. This document has been assessed to ensure that it does not adversely affect staff, students or stakeholders on the grounds of any protected characteristics.

OWNERSHIP OF THE PERSONAL DATA

To enable the Covid-19 testing to be completed at Askham Bryan College, the College needs to process Personal Data for staff and students taking part, including sharing of Personal Data where we have a legal obligation.

Askham Bryan College is the Data Controller for the data required for processing the tests and undertaking any actions which are needed by Askham Bryan College to ensure the College meets its public health and safeguarding legal obligations. The lawful basis for processing of Personal Data relating to staff is the College's legitimate interests to ensure we can minimise the spread of COVID in a timely manner and enable us to continue to deliver education services safely and securely.

STAFF AND STUDENTS

If you decline a test, the College will record your decision to reduce unnecessary contact with you regarding testing. The lawful basis for which is the College's legitimate interests.

Special Category Personal Data (Personal Data revealing racial or ethnic origin, data relating to health, etc), is processed under the provisions Section 9.2(i) of GDPR, where it is in the public interest on Public Health Grounds.

This data is processed under the obligations set out in Public Health legislation (Regulations 3(1) and (4) of the Health Service (Control of Patient Information) Regulations 2002 (COPI)) which allows the sharing of data for COVID related purposes and where it is carried out by a health care professional OR someone who owes an equivalent duty of confidentiality to that data.

Data Controllorship is then passed to the Department for Health and Social Care (DHSC) for all data that we transfer about you and your test results to them. For more information about what they do with your data please see the Test and Trace Privacy Notice (NHS COVID-19 app: privacy notice - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)). The College remains the Data Controller for the data we retain about you.

COVID-19 TESTING PRIVACY STATEMENT 2021

PERSONAL DATA INVOLVED IN THE PROCESS

We use the following information to help us manage and process the tests:

- Name
- Date of birth
- Gender
- Ethnicity
- Home postcode
- Email address
- Mobile number
- Unique barcode assigned to each individual test and which will become the primary reference number for the tests
- Test result
- Parent/guardians contact details (if required)

We will only use information that is collected directly from you specifically for the purpose of the tests, even if you have previously provided us with this information.

HOW WE STORE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

The information will only be stored securely on local spreadsheets in College whilst it is needed. It will also be entered directly onto DHSC digital services for the NHS Test and Trace purposes. The College will not have access to the information on the digital service once it has been entered.

PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA RELATING TO POSITIVE TEST RESULTS

The member of staff, student or parent (depending on contact details provided) will be informed of the result by the College and advised how to book a confirmatory test. We will also use this information to enact our own COVID isolation processes without telling anyone who it is that has received the positive test.

The information will be transferred to DHSC, who will share this with the NHS and GPs. PHE and the Local Government will use this information for wider test and trace activities as well as statistical and research purposes.
