POLICY ON ACCREDITATION OF PRIOR LEARNING (APL)(HE)

APCL	Accreditation of Prior Certificated Learning
APEL	Accreditation of Prior Experiential Learning

Prior Learning Certificated	Qualifications gained prior to the current programme by academically rigorous and valid assessment
Prior Learning Experiential	Uncertificated prior learning from experience
RPL	QAA Scotland's Recognition of Prior Learning

3. PRINCIPLES

- 3.1 The College recognises the validity of prior learning, whether certificated or based on experience, and seeks to give credit for such learning.
- 3.2 The College will provide opportunities for the accreditation of prior certificated or uncertificated learning for credit towards an award. Credit can be given for prior learning where the level and content of that learning is appropriate to a particular programme of study.
- 3.3 APL will be undertaken in a manner which ensures consistency and equity and preserves the academic integrity of the awards.
- 3.4 For students on FdSc Veterinary Nursing, any applications for APL or RPL will be considered on an individual basis. Due to the nature of the specific requirements of the programme, APL or RPL may not be possible and you are encouraged to speak to your module tutor or course manager as early as possible if considering an application..
- 3.5 Credit awarded for modules achieved through APL procedures will not be graded and will not contribute towards final classification of the award.
- 3.6 Students are responsible for preparing their own applications and for submission of appropriate, relevant and adequate evidence to the APL panel for consideration. Students are expected to study a module until the time that their application has been approved. There is no guarantee that any given application will be approved therefore students will be registered on the module until such notification is received.
